Scientists bag 7-foot creature in MONTANA!

EXCLUSIVE PHOTOS!

HAPPILY MARRIED Tom Green and his wives . . . Beth, Linda, Shirley, June and Lee Ann.

EACH of Tom's wives knows what it means to take care of a man. They all grew up in homes where there was more than one wife.

Utah man and his 5 wives are one big happy family!

By MARTHA ATKINS
Staff writer

Tom Green is one lucky man. He's not only married to five lovely women, but not one of them is jealous of the other!

Incredibly, Tom and Mrs. Beth Green, 48, Mrs. Linda Green, 30, Mrs. Shirley Green, 31, Mrs. June Green, 40, Mrs. Lee Ann Green, 18, and their nine kids all live as one big happy family in a group of four mobile homes.

Each wife lives with her children in her own trailer with the exception of Lee Ann. As Tom's newest wife, she doesn't have her own home yet. She lives with June, wife number four.

"The wives don't have any problems with jealousy over me," said Tom from his home in Sandy, Utah.

"That's because they know I love them all and am always there for them when they need me.

"They all get along together great and help each other out. We're one big happy family."

All of the Greens are Fundamentalist Mormons. They follow the tenets of the Mormon religion, which state that polygamy is an important part of their religion.

"Most people get the wrong idea when they hear I've got five wives," said Tom, 43. "They think it's for sexual reasons but it's not. Polygamy is part of our religion.

"If it were just a sexual thing, I certainly wouldn't have married all of these women and supported them and their children.

"And I didn't seek these women out either. They found me.

"Since the husband can have more than one wife, it's the woman who picks the husband and does the asking."

But having so many wives can be very demanding, especially since all five of them sleep with Tom.

"We all keep a nightgown in Tom's room. When it's our turn to spend the night with him we leave and get our nightgown."

For Lee Ann and the other wives sharing their husband is the most natural thing in the world.

"We all grew up in homes where there was more than one wife," said Lee Ann.

"I always knew I'd be one of many wives, so sharing Tom isn't a problem.

"We all love each other and get along."

And Tom says that there's always the possibility he might add wife number six to his family.

"The whole family would sit down and discuss it first and tell me what they think, but the final decision is up to me," he said.

JILTED LOVER DROWNS GIRLFRIEND'S SON, 5

— by throwing him into the sea

By JACK ALEXANDER
Staff writer

MIAMI, Fla. — A jealous lover craved revenge when he saw his girlfriend in the arms of another man, so he tossed her 5-year-old son into the sea to drown.

"I'm going to do something so she'll remember me for the rest of her life," Guillermo Arbelaez told a friend after Graciela Alfaro refused to marry him.

Guillermo and Graciela had been living together with her son, Julio Rivas.

The jilted lover was overcome with jealousy one night when he spied on his beloved and saw her kissing another man.

Guillermo was seething with anger inside but concealed his lust for revenge. He slept on the sofa that evening.

The next day he took the unsuspecting little boy for a one-way ride.

Guillermo stopped his 1973 Volvo on the side of Miami's Rickenbacker Causeway and opened the door for little Julio.

The youngster held out his arms to be picked up.

"I threw him in the sea," Guillermo subsequently confessed to police.

Julio's body was found floating in Biscayne Bay five hours later.

The cold-blooded killer ditched his Volvo in nearby Coral Gables and fled to his native Colombia.

A troubled conscience led Guillermo to return to Miami two months later and he confessed to police on videotape.

"I didn't know if he died. I didn't know anything. The only thing I knew is that I threw him," he told cops.

Guillermo said something inside him snapped when he saw the woman he hoped to marry kissing another man.

"I grabbed her with a brusqueness," he told police. "I did not hit her or anything like that.

"She said, 'Guillermo, I don't love you. I don't feel anything toward you.'"

A Miami jury convicted Guillermo of first-degree murder and kidnapping. A little boy's sister and the defendant were paid for by being murdered. Dragged into the water boy," said prosecutor Judy Weintraub.

Guillermo hasn't been sentenced.

DROWNED: Little Julio Rivas was found floating in the bay.

COLD-BLOODED Guillermo Arbelaez wanted to do something so his ex-girlfriend would remember him the rest of her life.

HEARTBROKEN mom Graciela Alfaro, right, is comforted by her daughter Evelyn. Graciela's five-year-old son was dumped after being thrown off Miami's Rickenbacker Causeway by her vengeful ex-lover.

A jury has convicted Guillermo Arbelaez of murdering little Julio Rivas — but the judge has not yet sentenced him. What do you think his punishment should be? Write to You Be the Judge, World's Weirdest Mom, 4835 East Cactus Ave., Las Vegas, Nev. 89115.

Virginia couple wanted toddler to 'stand out in a crowd'

BABY GETS TATTOOED!

By KATHERINE ANN ROSS
Correspondent

Betsy and Chester Colby like to stand out in a crowd and they want their baby boy to fit their image — so they've had little Chester II tattooed like a sailor!

The 18-month-old tyke has a sailing ship tattooed on his chest, a heart with the word "MOM" on his left arm and a sailor gal on his right arm. Above his left nipple is a tiny red heart, a strawberry decorates his right forearm, a little blue rose blooms on his baby bottom and there's a small butterfly tattooed on his right ankle.

"It's a real attention-getter," said proud mom Betsy, 25, a housewife and volunteer worker from Norfolk, Va.

"Before we had him tattooed nobody paid much attention to him. Now he's the most famous baby in our set. All my friends are real jealous of me because my baby is distinctive."

While the Colbys admit that they get some unfavorable comments now and then on their son's skin decorations, they say they don't care. They enjoy having him be a conversation piece, they say.

"We go to social gatherings and we bring him along just to hear what our friends will say," says Chester, a 28-year-old investment banker who drives a Mercedes and owns a six-bedroom mansion. "Most of our friends think he looks great and several are planning on having their sons or daughters done, too.

"Some people criticize us for having Chester tattooed, but we say it doesn't hurt him, so what's the harm? To him, it's normal to have colorful tattoos. He can't remember a time he didn't have them."

The Colbys say they have always worked hard to be trend-setters. They have the right cars, the right pets and the right friends. They decided to tattoo their baby after they noticed that he was taken for granted by friends and relatives. The blood-hared boy was cute, they say, but not the kind of baby that made other couples green with envy.

The Colbys, who don't have any tattoos themselves, reasoned that tattoos would be a permanent way to make little Chester truly outstanding. So on his first birthday, they took the boy to a tattoo parlor.

"That was the only disgusting part, really," Betsy admits. "The tattoo artist was sleazy and Chester cried a little bit, but not too much — and after it was done we knew it had been really worth it. People just go nuts over him now. He's invited to all the other kids' birthday parties and we get asked to social events just so we will bring him along."

Betsy is expecting her second child this October and the grippie couple say when the baby is born they'll probably have him — or her — tattooed right away.

"It'll just be so neat to have a tiny baby with all those cute little teensy tattoos all over it," Betsy said. "People will just go wild."

PROUD mom Betsy Colby and dad Chester, inset, love their baby son's tattoos.

HIGH-TECH DASHBOARDS CONFUSE ELDERLY DRIVERS, SAY EXPERTS

Auto companies are planning to design a car with simpler instrument panels — because older drivers are having a rough time figuring out modern high-tech dashboards.

Experts are worried that old drivers over 50 spend too much time with their eyes off the road trying to figure out where the stereo is or how to turn on the lights.

that they need to detect changes in the traffic as early as possible because it takes them longer to react," said Anthony Yanik of General Motors Corp.

"And older adults represent the fastest growing market segment for the future."

Manufacturers are considering returning to old-fashioned dashboards with headlight switch, wiper and washer switches on the left and the radio, heater and defroster

UFO PLAYS 'TAG' WITH PASSENGER JET!

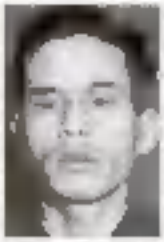
GIANT UFO sent jetliner on a 1,200-ft. nosedive when it flew a bit too close to the plane.

By THOMAS CHAN
In Shanghai

More than 270 passengers aboard Air China flight 1601 endured a 16-minute nightmare of terror when their Boeing 767 jetliner was nearly punched out of the sky — by a marauding UFO!

The jetliner was on a daylight flight from Beijing to Shanghai and was 70 minutes from its destination when the silvery, saucer-shaped UFO approached from dead ahead, then shot by less than 100 yards above the plane.

The rocketing starship passed so close it created a turbulence that sent the jet plunging nose-down toward the ground like a spent bullet.



Tong Hok-Wai

The 767 dropped more than 1,200 feet before pilot Le Ming Shengli was able to bring it back under control. But many passengers suffered severe head injuries and facial cuts from carry-on luggage that spilled from overhead lockers.

"I didn't know what had happened, but when our plane began falling, I thought all of us were going to die," passenger Tong Hok-Wai said in an interview after the jet landed safely at Shanghai's Hongqiao Airport.

"I have never felt such fear before. People were screaming and suitcases crashed down on us. Many people were injured. I was lucky. I have only a bump on my head."

Copilot Chan Sun Yan told a reporter for the Xin Jin Wanbao newspaper that he believes the UFO's near-disastrous fly-by was done out of curiosity and wasn't meant as

Nightmare encounter lasted 16 minutes of our plane, the UFO made a very significant reduction in speed," he explained.

"It moved to our port side, slightly above us and cruised along at our speed.

"It was an enormous ship. I can state it could not have been an Earth craft. It was about 300 yards off our wing, but it was so gigantic, it looked like it was right next to us."

Pilot Le Ming said the crew made desperate attempts to contact traffic controllers in Beijing and Shanghai but their radio calls were unable to penetrate some form of electrical disturbance transmitted by the UFO.

"The alien craft remained in escort for 16 minutes and never made any maneuver that would again harm us," he added. "The ship made no sound and I could see nothing that would indicate what kind of engines or propulsion systems it had.

"It appeared to be made of some type of silvery metal that had a glowing, tarnished surface. There were many colored lights and many long, narrow slit-like windows.

"But I was not sure that the ship was manned by a crew."

Le Ming said the UFO finally moved ahead of the jet to a distance of about a half-mile, then made a slow climbing bank that took it well clear of the plane.

"It moved only slightly faster than we were and it was very apparent that whoever was in command of the UFO didn't want to create any more dangerous turbulence.

"When it was in a safe position, the UFO suddenly shot into the heavens like a bolt of lightning and disappeared."

Le Ming said that as he continued the flight to Shanghai, his plane was suddenly surrounded by six Chinese Air Force MIG 19s that escorted them to their landing.

"I have been told that though our radio transmissions had been blocked, the UFO had been spotted on radar," he explained.

"The fighters were sent to intercept the alien craft, but it had vanished into space long before they arrived. I am quite certain the UFO knew they were coming."

After landing at Hongqiao Airport, the injured were

Teens hit jackpot — with photocopied cash, say cops

A couple of teenagers hit on an easy way to make a buck — they printed them up on a copy machine!

Police in Greenfield, Ind., arrested the punks after they allegedly confessed to cashing bogus bills in change machines.

Cops warned that the counterfeiting technique is not only illegal, it is extremely difficult to do, but said the suspects had perfected a method that worked.

131-year-old guru snacks on deadly live scorpions!

Indian guru Rajender Chandra is 131 years old and as spry as a teenager — and he owes it all to his daily snacks of live scorpions!

Chandra stuns doubters by sealing the deadly creatures between his lips by their sickle-shaped tails, allowing them to stab their poisonous stingers into his tongue over and over again.

Known in the Punjab of India as "The Man with the Mouth of Snake," Chandra's followers gather each day an hour before sunset to watch in amazement as the vile-looking scorpions flail and wiggle to free themselves from his firmly clenched lips.

Then, with a lightning-quick flick of his tongue, the tall and muscular guru flips the scorpion into his mouth, crunches it to bits with his own firm teeth, and gulps it down with relish.

"The scorpions the Holy Teacher eats come from North Africa and are the deadliest in all the world," declared Ramesh Zahida, a cripple who has served as Chandra's servant for more than 50 years.

"The Teacher says the scorpions' venom mingles with his blood and kills all of the germs that would destroy his health.

"He eats 15 whole, living scorpions every day and I have never seen him show any signs of pain or discomfort."

I GAINED 74 LBS. TO SAVE MY MARRIAGE

SLIM Glynis weighed only 150 pounds after dieting.

Ruby-puly 310-pound butterball Glynis Cooper thought she was pleasing her hubby when she shed an astonishing 160 pounds — but he made her fatten up again because all the guys were flirting with her!

"Now I'm fat again, and the rumors stay away," the 30-year-old Exeter, England, gal chirped happily.

It all started when Glynis and her husband Peter met six years ago. In those days 5-foot munch Glynis weighed "only" 213 pounds — and Peter couldn't have been happier.

"Peter told me I had the nicest figure in the world," Glynis recalled. "But after we were married I became so contented I indulged myself with treats — like chocolates and ice cream — and I began to spread."

Glynis grew ... and grew ... and GREW. Within two years she'd ballooned to a waist-crushing 310 pounds.

That was too much — even for fat-loving Peter. "He begged me to slim down to my old shape so we could put the joy and loving back into our marriage."

Glynis went to a doctor and had her jaws wired shut so she could swallow only baby food and liquids. In a year she'd lost about 90 pounds.

The wires came off Glynis' jaws — but she wasn't done yet. "I was determined Peter was going to see the 'real' me, and decided to hit a target weight of 150 pounds."

By last summer Glynis had reached her goal, dumping a total of 160 pounds.

She was delighted — but there was one big problem.

"The minute we'd start a lot of men suddenly began finding me much more attractive as well.

"My 37-28-37 figure brought out whistles."

Said Peter, a 47-year-old driving instructor, "Going out with her was like going out with my own daughter. Men were eyeing her continually, and I came very close to having fistfights with some of them, remem."

Finally he pleaded. "I pleaded with her to make herself fat again."

"That evening I ate my first chocolate cake in two years," Glynis said.

"Now I'm back to a very ruby-ly 44-36-52 figure. I'm 224 pounds, the size Peter prefers me at — no fatter and no thinner."

Hooray, I'm fat again!

SHE'S AN ARMFUL, but Peter is glad to have his ruby-puly wife back.

DOCTOR PERFORMS SURGERY HIMSELF!

By LEE PAXTON
In Bucharest, Romania

A 70-year-old doctor gave himself a hernia operation and then performed the same surgery on one of his patients — less than 48 hours later!

Dr. Cornel Truta is the first to admit that operating on himself "might have been folly" but said, "I'm so old and close to death, I didn't have that much to lose anyway.

"The way I see it the operation was a challenge," he continued. "I also wanted to show my younger colleagues and assistants how important it is for a doctor to trust himself.

"You can't possibly ask a patient to put his life in your hands unless you're willing to do so yourself."

Dr. Truta diagnosed his hernia in December but put off the operation for three months. He said he thought about having another doctor operate but changed his mind when one of his patients refused to submit to the same operation because he was afraid of going under the knife.

"I told him I could operate blindfolded and assured him that it wouldn't hurt a bit," said Dr. Truta. "He said, 'That's easy for you to say. You're the one holding the knife.' I thought about what he said for a day or two and decided to prove him wrong by operating on myself."

Dr. Truta got permission from the hospital's administrator and operated while four nurses and two interns watched.

The assistants handed him instruments and wiped away blood.

Next he administered a local anesthetic, made the six-inch incision in his abdomen, repaired the hernia and even stitched up the wound himself.

Forty-six hours later he was back in the operating

. . . then does same operation on patient 46 hours later!

FISH MUGS MAN!

A high school teacher in Italy is recovering from a close encounter with a spiteful 6-pound trout, according to police reports.

The lunker was on a field trip with his ninth grade biology class at a neighborhood pond.

"I was talking to them about the importance of keeping the environment clean," said Giovanni Bocchicchio, a schoolteacher for 14 years.

"I was pointing to some litter at the edge of a neighborhood pond when suddenly the lights went out!" said Bocchicchio.

The students reported that as their teacher was leaning over to pick up a Styrofoam cup that had been thrown into the pond, a large fish suddenly jumped out of the water, caught Bocchicchio alongside the jaw and knocked him out.

"When I came to, the students were all just staring at me and the trout was flopping around on the ground," said Bocchicchio.

"I ended up with a small bruise on the side of my face, a great fish story and fresh trout for dinner."

Cutting edge

City councilmen in South Carlsia, Calif., have hit on a unique way to find out what residents want from local government — they're going to ask hairdressers who listen to ordinary people talk about the city and its problems every day!

"These are people who listen to people all day long," City Manager John Caravalho said.

Escaped zebra makes tracks

Railroad commuters got the shock of their life when a zebra galloped down the tracks into the station instead of the morning train they were waiting for.

The poor beast had been released by vandals from his home in the Rotterdam Rail-land, zoo.

"He galloped a mile or so along the tracks, straight into Rotterdam Central Station," said zoo spokesman Rudo Rijenberg.

Zoo workers finally caught the 2-year-old zebra on a railway bridge, tranquilized him

"The operation stung a little but has it certainly wasn't anything I couldn't handle," said Dr. Truin. "The toughest part was seeing what I was doing.

Wacky inventor makes love potion out of toenails!

A crackpot college professor claims to have concocted the world's most powerful love potion — using nothing but ground toenails, ginger root and apple cider!

"This is the greatest aphrodisiac known to man," slap-happy scientist Dieter Altmeyer told a conference of sex therapists in Bern, Switzerland.

"Two drinks of this will turn a graveyard into a sexual tiger — and turn a sexual loser into Superman."

Dingbat Dieter says he created the potent concoction in his laboratory in Vienna, Austria — and discovered its awesome powers the same night.

"It works wonders," he insists. "And you don't have to take my word for it — you can ask my wife. She's been one happy lady since this stuff came along."

But after listening to the prof's presentation at the therapy conference, a crowd of doubting docs seemed convinced daffy Dieter has finally lost his marbles.

"This guy is obsessed with creating the magic elixir that will make all men sexual machines," Dr. Conrad Mertz, a Swiss urologist, later told reporters. "And some of his potions have actually looked promising on paper.

"But one after another of them has proven a dismal flop in the bedroom.

"And I guess all that failure has finally driven him off the deep end, because ground toenails, ginger root and apple cider — that's the goofiest thing I've ever heard of."

THE MOST SENSATIONAL GOVERNMENT CONSPIRACY OF OUR TIME IS FINALLY REVEALED TO THE WORLD BY A RETIRED MILITARY OFFICER

SHOCKING DISCLOSURES

✓ The U.S. Has Made a Secret Deal With Aliens From Space.
✓ ETs Have Set Up Underground Bases in Denver Beneath The Earth.
✓ Space Beings Are Abducting Humans For Weird Experiments With The Complete Knowledge of The Government.
✓ John Kennedy Was Assassinated Because He Was About To Tell The World About This Great Conspiracy.
✓ Russia & U.S. Join Forces To Safeguard Earth.

This is without a doubt the most shocking story of the century...a story that is so strange and so bizarre as to almost defy believability. And yet it is a story that concerns all of us, as it poses a dire threat to the entire human race.

According to "highly placed" sources, at this very moment certain members of the government and military are attempting to keep under careful wraps the biggest cover-up in United States history. It is a conspiracy that involves a project so hush-hush that only the President and a handful of his most trusted advisers —members of the Defense Department, the CIA, and the National Security Council—are even aware of the very existence of this classified Above Top Secret matter that could well alter the course of our very lives.

Those in the military—because of their skillful assignments—who have stumbled upon this "secret," have found themselves undergoing intense personal and psychological persecutions that extend for years beyond their being drummed out of the service, because they literally discovered what is happening under our very noses.

This "deception" involves the fact that visitors from outer space have not only set foot on this planet and exchanged scientific data with the military, but have been maintaining bases here for years. Several groups of aliens have actually established ongoing relationships with our leaders. And we have even sent representatives to other worlds, and welcomed with open arms their "astronauts," who continue to live here under tight security. Some of these ETs are benevolent, but at least one group, known as the "Grays," or EBEs," continue to abduct thousands of humans each year for breeding and genetic experimentation, holding them in huge cavern-like laboratory bunkers beneath Earth's surface.

[redacted]

Several months ago, a well-known UFO group received a fascinating dossier of documents. This package of ABOVE TOP SECRET material was from an individual who claimed to be a member of the intelligence community. The "Source" stated that he was willing to share some very disturbing information which has involved a massive Cover-Up of gigantic proportions... but only if his true identity was kept a closely guarded secret. He further stated that he wished to be known simply as "Commander X." The bulk of the material he subsequently delivered involves a conspiracy that leads right up to the front gate of the White House, and behind the Kremlin walls, and proves that the recent events in Eastern Europe were actually orchestrated in unison by the U.S. and Soviet Governments for reasons that involve the security of the entire planet, and NOT just one nation.

[redacted]

Commander X revealed that every President since Truman has been involved in the massive cover-up. Most of us are probably familiar with the so-called Majestic-12 documents, which tell of the crash of a UFO and the recovery of its humanoid occupants near Roswell, New Mexico in 1947. Many other Top Secret projects have come about due to the retrieval of this flying disc. For the first time the purpose of Project Redlight, Project Aquarius, Project Snowbird are revealed. All of these classified projects deal with the arrival of aliens and an attempt to construct a real flying saucer based on the technology derived from captured extraterrestrial craft and from cooperating with these "visitors" who seem more or going about their "day to day business" without any interference on our part. You will learn what Eisenhower, Kennedy, Nixon, Carter and our nation's other leaders learned upon entering the Oval Office. This conspiracy has been dubbed "The Ultimate Deception."

STARTLING REVELATIONS

- How the early UFO movement was used to spread alien propaganda and disinformation.
- "Insider" testimony of the landing of a spaceship at Maxwell Air Force Base, witnessed by President Eisenhower.
- Date on crashes in which the ETs actually survived and were taken into "protective custody."
- The UFO that came down in the Canadian wilderness.
- A case less than a year old from South Africa, in which a surviving ET was handed over to the U.S. and ended up being taken to the infamous "Hangar 18".
- How the newest visit to the "Cold War" was orchestrated.
- Bizarre tests carried out by government officials unable to "handle" the information they possessed.
- The man who sits in prison accused of murder, who says while in the service he not only saw several alien bodies, but discovered the AIDS virus was manufactured as part of a chemical-biological warfare program.
- Photographic evidence released by the Carter Administration which shows a doughnut-shaped UFO following the President's private helicopter over Panama. Shortly thereafter, Carter is said to have had his own Close Encounter.
- Story of an Air Force Colonel who was observed going into a UFO, and was never seen again. He is reported as "missing in action" in military records.
- Hoax against Bush will at various locations, and withdrawn for "Grays." Plans to a plan to "smash out" the aliens from captivity.

Though he has kept silent for many years despite what he knows, Commander X maintains that he can no longer refrain from giving the inside story. "As someone with close military ties," he explains, "and due to the fact that the government went behind the public's backs in order to conceal this agreement, I believe it is my patriotic duty to reveal all that I know, regardless of the possible consequences. We live in a great country, a nation that believes in free speech and free elections, and I see absolutely no reason why this information shouldn't be divulged—especially before it is far too late and while we still have time to stamp out the menace among us.

"The concealment has gone on far too long, and it surely would continue were it not for a few brave souls who have literally risked their very lives to leak the story to a public who has been left in 'blissful ignorance.'"

Abe's ghost talks to George Bush

By TOM STANTON
in Washington, D.C.

Abe Lincoln's ghost has been spotted in the White House four times in the past six months. On two occasions the haggard, heavy-lidded spirit actually spoke to George Bush!

That's the claim of Secret Service agents and other political insiders who have concluded that Lincoln's spirit still has a hand in guiding our nation 126 years after John Wilkes Booth shot him dead in 1865.

We've seen him lumbering down the hall in the White House's second floor and conferring with President Bush in the Oval Office," said one veteran Secret Service agent who requested anonymity to protect his job.

"He looks tired, a little sad and worn, but there's no doubt that it's Lincoln. I knew for a fact that the spirit had visited the White House four times since August.

"It's been said that the spirit has awakened President Bush at least twice while discussing America's role in the 'new world order.' I for one, don't doubt it at all."

White House spokesmen will neither confirm nor deny the report but it's a known fact that Lincoln's ghost has roamed the White House many times.

Presidents Dwight D. Eisenhower and Teddy Roosevelt both encountered the spirit when they were President. And British Prime Minister Winston Churchill saw Lincoln's ghost during a visit to the White House.

LINCOLN'S GHOST still roams the White House and has spoken with President Bush twice in the last six months!

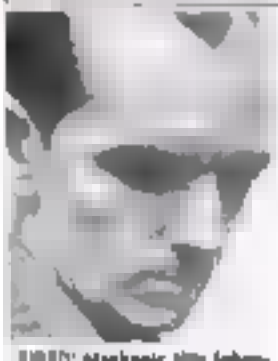
Chain-smoking boss tells wimpy mechanic:

Light up — or you're fired!



PUFFIN' BOSS Ole Hansen told Nils "smoke-or-die."

An auto mechanic was fired from his job because he refused to smoke.

"I don't want an employee working for me who won't smoke enough to light up a cigarette at a good time," said Ole Hansen, smoking buns like Mussolini.

Skinny storehouse Nils Johansen had been a two-pack-a-day smoker during the 10 years he had worked for Nordal at his garage in Oslo, Norway.

"Then he married this beauty queen from America who made him change his ways," said Ole.

KEVIN COSTNER FOR PRESIDENT IN 1992!

RAMBO! Kevin Costner seems ready to take the oath of office! Washington insiders say Hollywood's top star would be a natural in the White House, what with his good looks and worldwide appeal.

POPULAR George Bush could throw any election — except maybe Hollywood hunk Kevin.

HEROIC image was cemented in Costner's classic Dances With Wolves.

Hollywood superstar Kevin Costner isn't satisfied making blockbuster Oscar-winning movies — the dirty-blond hunk wants to become the next president of the United States!

"The Democrats are overjoyed at the prospect of Costner being their candidate for president," says our Washington observer. "And why shouldn't they be?

"Everyone's talking about Dances With Wolves and how much it's done for the American Indian. The guy is young, he's handsome and he has a Kennedy-like charisma that will blow George Bush and his fat-cat Republicans out of the water."

Political pros like the way Costner handled studio moguls in getting Wolves filmed. He told them just what they wanted to hear and in return got everything he wanted.

"He always tells the truth, but he knows which truth to tell which people," says a close friend. Rumors about Costner being a divorced lady-killer may not hinder his bold bid for the presidency.

"Costner is one of those people who's loved a them enough [to that there's nothing out there — at least not yet," says syndicated columnist Frank Swertlow.

Queen's nasty mutts terrorize the palace

Buckingham Palace is going bonkers over the Queen's pet pooches — her ritzy corgis are biting every ankle in sight! "The help are helpless," says one royal observer. "The little mutts have the run of the place. And their tempers are shorter than their legs.

CAVEWOMAN SHOCKER!

Hypnotist sends housewife back to prehistoric past life — AND NOW SHE'S TRAPPED THERE!

By LAUREL LOWIE

A lunkhead hypnotist returned mother of three Bea Stiller to her past life as a cavewoman 40,000 years ago — and now the knuckle-brained therapist can't bring her back!

So bewildered Bea spends her days mooping around her swanky suburban home in a tattered old fur, gnawing on turkey legs and bananas, grunting and snarling like an animal — and plotting ways to bag the family pooch for dinner.

"It's obvious the poor woman doesn't know where she is or who she is," sighed her flustered hubby George. "She doesn't recognize me, she doesn't recognize the kids, she doesn't recognize anybody.

"She used always go crazy about our dog Scotty, and now we have to lock him in the garage to keep her from hitting him over the head and eating him.

"She thinks she's a cave lady and little Scotty's some kind of wild game."

The bizarre story began three months ago when bored Bea, 36, visited stumblebum psychologist Bernard Rubber to learn more about her past lives.

"This guy advertised himself as a licensed therapist who used hypnosis to regress his patients into past incarnations — but it turned out he was a total quack," jeweler George told a reporter.

HAPPIER DAYS — Bea and hubby George last summer before Bea went back in time.

GRUNTING and snarling, Bea wolfs down food like she did in a past life. Below, television has her hatted.

"The idiot managed to get Bea back to the Stone Age, all right — and then he didn't know how to bring her home again. He took a perfectly wonderful wife and mother and turned her into a screeching, grunting cavewoman."

The luckless lady was committed to a Johannesburg, South Africa, psychiatric hospital, where six legitimate hypnotists tried to undo the damage bumbling Bernie had done — with absolutely no success.

"Finally they told me to take her home, that she might come around in a familiar environment," said flabbergasted George. "But she's not coming around at all.

"Everything in the house intrigues her, especially the TV. So she spends most of her time in her room — and she's got it looking just like a cave, with place. She won't bathe, she won't wash her hair and she won't wear anything but an old fur coat that she found in the closet and ripped to shreds.

"It's like living with a wild animal in the house."

Refusing to use a knife or fork or to eat off a plate, as her husband feeds her mostly meat and fresh fruit.

"She likes T-bones and turkey legs — things she can gnaw right off the bone," he said sadly.

But while Bea's delicate condition has been heartbreaking for easygoing George, it's been even more troubling for their three daughters, ages 2 through 6.

"How would you feel," asked the distraught dad, "if you were 6 years old and your mother thought she was a

Bleeding-heart movies about Indians make me sick!

MY AMERICA

By ED ANGER

I'm madder than Hiawatha with a leaky canoe over all this Hollywood hullabaloo about American Indians.

First of all, there ain't no such thing as an American Indian since America didn't exist until before the pilgrims came over and started calling it that.

But these weepy bleeding-heart actors like Kevin Costner, or whatever his name is, are always making movies that make the scrambling redskins of the Old West look like real, nice guys.

Tell General George Armstrong Custer how nice those redskins were!

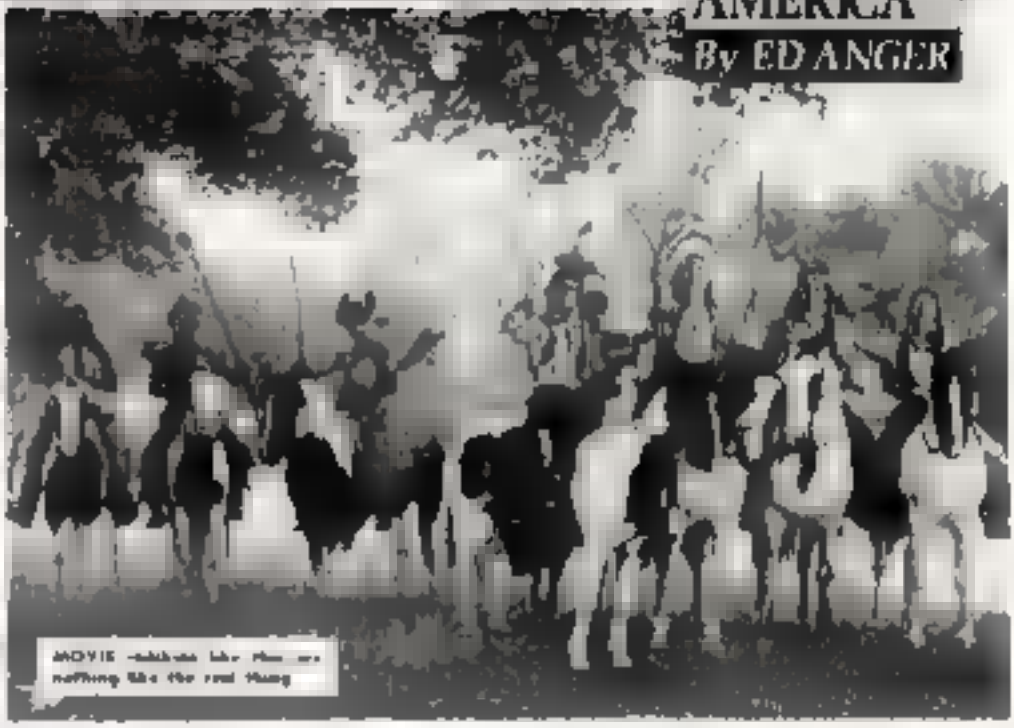
My wife Thelma Jean and I were watching those Oscar awards on TV a couple of weeks ago and both of us almost threw up when that Indian movie "Dancing With Wolves" or some such title like that won pictures of the year, for crying out loud.

That late, great Indian fighter John "Duke" Wayne must be spinning in his grave!

What about a little about those heavy blue coats who killed Indians to make the prairie safe for the U.S.A.? Afterwards — those rough 'n' tough settlers who tamed the West.

Hey, I like Indians as much as the next guy, but give me a break. If I see one more pasty-faced actor being passed around as some heap-big chief befeathering about the white man's perfect image I think I'll puke.

Let's face it. We DIDN'T HAVE most of this great land from GREEDY Indians who'd rather wheel and deal for a lousy string of beads than hunt buffalo. Manhattan Island in New York is a perfect example.



MOVIE -- shown like this are nothing like the real thing

Indian real estate agents took the white man to the cleaners on that little deal — $24 for a few thousand acres of swampland. And 24 bucks was heap big money in those days. Folks — about $360.00 in today's cash. And that kind of dough buys a lot of memories.

But what makes me so pugilistic mad is that if the Indians could have won we'd all be living in teepees, worshiping totem poles and reaching out and touching someone with smoke signals, for Pete's sake.

And another thing. I never heard an Indian on TV say much more than "UGH" or "HOW." But let one of 'em so much as groan in those bleeding-heart movies and some translator says, "Chief Pain In The Butt says Great White Spirit blah, blah, blah, blah." and goes on to recite the Bora Preamble to the Constitution.

And all the big Chief did was burp.

If these redskins were so great why do kids fight over who's going to wear the boots and six-guns in cowboys and Indians?

So let's put the movie Indians back where they belong — outta' head from Hopalong Cassidy, Gene Autry and Roy Rogers, by gum!

Mongoose attacks man's snakeskin boots!

Fancy-pants playboy Harry Kern saved for seven months to buy a pair of $1,000 cobra-skin cowboy boots — then watched in horror as a hopping-mad mongoose ripped his ritzy hosts to shreds!

By JOE BERGER

The ruthless mongoose man of Short attacked the ruthless Hoppy-go-lucky Harry strained take a pal's pet chop to show off the hand-tooled boots he'd bought just minutes before.

"Mongooses are treacherous snake-eaters, and when Short saw my new boots, he must've figured, hands 'em' arrived," moaned the heartsick guy. "It just proves salesman scrimped and saved for seven long months till he had the money in hand.

"I was so excited the day I walked into that store and slipped those things on," he said.

"I have no woman could resist a snap at $1,000 snake-skin boots.

"I walked out of there on top of the world."

Flamboyant Harry headed straight for buddy Kenneth Lang's pet store to give him a gander at his grandiose footwear.

"Kenneth was thrilled for me, and he was as proud as I was," said Harry.

"He said he'd never seen a pair of boots like them before.

"He suggested we show them off to his pet, and I knew that mongooses are notorious for biting and eating huge, deadly snakes — but I just never dreamed he'd make short work of my snakeskin boots," said the baffled wearer.

"It happened so fast, those poor things didn't have a chance to kill them.

"I took them back to the store and asked the guy if I could get my money back, but he just laughed at me. He said only an idiot shows off a pair of $1,000 snakeskin boots to a pet, and I know that mongooses are notorious for biting and eating huge, deadly snakes — but I just never dreamed he'd make short work of my snakeskin boots," said the baffled wearer.

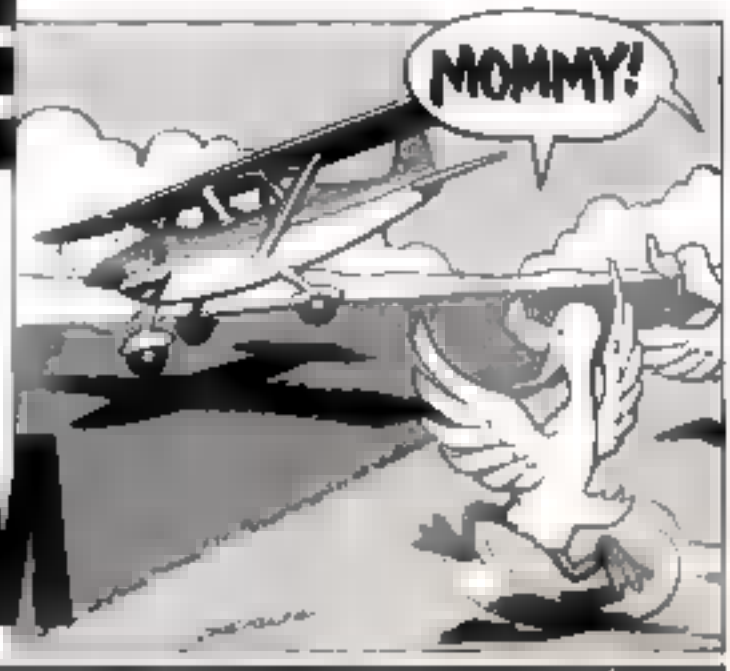
BABY GEESE ADOPT AIRPLANE AS THEIR NEW MOM



Orphaned honkers love to curl up under big bird's wing

By LAUREL BOWIE
Special to The NEWS

Flabbergasted pilot Frankie Lee's single-engine airplane has fast become a tourist attraction — since a flock of befuddled baby geese adopted the big bird as their mom!

"No doubt about it, those babies think my airplane is their cotton-picking mother," said flustered Frankie.

"Anyplace I taxi, they toddle along behind, trying to keep up. Then when I stop, they cuddle up around those big old wheels and go to sleep, just like they would with their flesh and blood mom."

And sure the story of the [illegible] goslings took root. Frankie's been up to his ears in geese droppings.

"I get strangers calling by every day for a look, 'cause they think it's so cute," he said.

"And to tell you the truth, I think it's pretty cute myself."

The tale of the orphaned honkers began one morning when the unsuspecting aviator headed his shiny Cessna on a private sortie at his home near Calgary, Canada.

"I got down and started to turn around, and suddenly I saw about a dozen baby geese stretching out of the grass as fast as their little legs would carry them," recalled laughing Frankie, 30.

"They followed me all the way back to the hangar, and the minute I stopped, they started running up in the wheels and making happy lil' lie chirping noises. Like they'd never been more contented in their life.

"A minute later they were all nested asleep, resting peacefully under their new mother's wings."

The kindly pilot put out food and water for the ravenous little brood — and the grateful babes have been hanging around his hangar and running around his runway ever since.

"I figure hunters must have shot their real-life mother and they were out looking for a substitute," said the divorced dad. "My plane must have been about as close as they could come.

"Now every time I take the plane out I feel guilty, because I have to forget them from their 'mom,' and they look so sad. They chase me down the runway and fly about half a lil but they can, trying to keep up — and when I take off I imagine them standing there with tears in their little eyes.

"Then I land and they're jumping up and down with joy. It's pitiful thinking how much they love that old plane."

Having a gang of pop-eyed goslings underfoot has been a bit cheekvertical — and more than a bit messy — for the busy multihistory aloe man. But compassionate Frankie says he'd never think of giving them the boot.

"Cleaning them away would be like making them orphans for a second time," he said.

Wacko drunk tried to wrestle lion — & lost!

By RANDOLF POWER

A stupid drunk opened a circus lions' cage so he could wrestle a bit with the king of beasts and was severely mauled!

The 35-year-old man suffered horrible gashes on his neck and back, but survived after surgery.

"He was definitely drunk," said a police spokesman in Ararat, Australia, [illegible] said the man used bolt cutters to remove chains on the lions' cage so he could test his strength against the big cats.

The man freed four lions from the cage in predawn hours and was attacked by one. His screams brought police officers, one of whom was injured while try-

Are you addicted to giving blood?

Giving blood makes some donors feel so "high" that they actually become addicted to it and can't wait to give blood again.

One reason for the happy, carefree feeling following a blood donation is the body's release of a marijuana-like hormone, explained Dr. Charles Stroebel, a noted psychiatrist.

It's like a natural morphine injection," he said.

"Giving blood can produce such a euphoric feeling among donors that the donors become addicted to it."

Blood donors' "high" is also partly due to the reaction of the body's nervous system to a drop in blood pressure, according to Dr. Loring Chapman.

This causes the nervous system to react in a way that sometimes gives the donor a feeling of elation, he added.

Dr. Jane Allyn Piliavin agreed. "The experienced blood donor often becomes carefree, warmhearted, lively, playful and relaxed for hours after giving blood."

"Frequent blood donors can develop a psychological dependency or addiction to giving blood."

In Wisconsin, Dr. Piliavin said, the Red Cross requires blood donors to wait at least 56 days between donations.

How I'm Financially Secure!

"I was dead broke when I received the Pace business opportunity information and I figured I really had nothing to lose by giving Pace a chance. Now my Pace earnings have given me financial security for the first time in my life.

"Believe me, I never saw anything before in my life like the Pace orders were coming in so fast. Most of my orders did not even require a sales call. They were like a 'found' check in my mail. They simply showed their business to my customers. Then in spare time they sent the Pace orders. Some of the church's members volunteered to do the duplicating. And they benefited with no problems at all.

"And the work was a duplicating background from orders Pace's Mail-In and also it is so no-risk as a shopping center. Those two orders alone earned me commissions of about $2,500. And just this week Pace sent me a bonus totaling $1,500."

Curiosity darn near killed this cat

This poor little critter must have seen all nine of his lives flash before his eyes when he got drilled through the head with an arrow fired from a crossbow. But not only did the kitty survive the negligent wound, he came through the grisly ordeal with his sight as good as ever! Apparently unaware that curiosity had been known to kill cats, this little daredevil was nosing his nose where it didn't belong — in a neighbor's garage in Thalwall, England — when WHAM! The neighbor shot him smack in the face. The poor kitty managed to crawl home to its horrified owner, Stephen Hawkins, who rushed him to a veterinarian. The operation to remove the arrow was a success, and the tough tabby — held at right by Hawkins — appears none the worse for the wear. The savage neighbor who committed the revolting deed was charged with a hefty fine + suspended jail sentence. Pro-mercy put here — and the cat fell

BIGFOOT CAPTURED

Incredible photos of half-man, half-creature

NEWS EXCLUSIVE By DICK DONOVAN

DEER LODGE, Mont. — A leading zoologist captured a Bigfoot alive and he's got the pictures to prove it!

The photos clearly show Dr. Leonard Owens and three assistants chasing the 7-foot creature through a forest before they disabled it with a tranquilizing dart on March 27.

The photos also show the captured Bigfoot looking through the door of a holding cell at a research facility near Helena.

It's there that the experts are trying to determine how closely the creature is related to humans and whether it possessed the intelligence needed to communicate, even on a primitive level.

"Now that we've proved Bigfoot exists the challenge before us is to find out where it belongs on the evolutionary ladder," Dr. Owens told reporters.

"It's already evident that the animal is more intelligent than monkeys and apes.

"And even though we have yet to determine its mental range and potential, there's a very real possibility that we can teach it to talk."

Dr. Owens refused to say exactly where the creature is being held "to avoid a media circus" but he confirmed that it's "adapting to life in captivity rather well."

He also noted that the capture of the Bigfoot capped a grueling six month search that began after dozens of witnesses sighted the beast last fall. "We were very optimistic when we first began our search but like all members of the breed, the Bigfoot was elusive," said Dr. Owens. "For weeks and weeks all we found were clumps of fur and a few footprints in the mud.

"But that kept us going and on March 27, our perseverance paid off. We got within a few hundred yards of the Bigfoot and our expert marksman, Bill Palmer, downed it with a tranquilizing dart."

Dr. Owens said he and his team carried the 560-pound Bigfoot out of the woods on a stretcher and airlifted it to the research facility for further study. The beast seems to be happy in its new environment, he added, although it remains wary of men.

"The Bigfoot eats fruits and nuts voraciously and appears to be in very good health," continued the expert. "It's difficult to say at this early date, but it seems to be about 25 years old." Dr. Owens says the Bigfoot growls, grunts, whines and shrieks to communicate such feelings and needs as pleasure, pain, hunger and thirst.

He also noted that it is about as responsive as any wild animal that's been captured and confined to a 16 by 12-foot room. "We're currently testing him prior to testing, but we're sure the day will come when we will be able to end the quarantine entirely," said Dr. Owens.

"To date our examinations indicate that the Bigfoot is reasonably intelligent.

"It's very intriguing. It seems to the researchers at its own existence, much like primitive man."

The expert says he's currently filming a documentary on the Bigfoot and hopes to release it along with a full, published report by late summer or early fall.

"Science took a giant step forward when we captured this Bigfoot," he said. "The things we learn about it belong to all mankind."

AMERICA'S MOST OUTSPOKEN ADVICE COLUMNIST

Dear Dotti: After two years of marriage my husband and I decided that our sex life had gotten so boring we got into group sex to spice things up. The only problem is that I've gotten pregnant and don't know who the father is. Any advice? — Messed Up in Myersville

Dear Messed Up: You should have thought about the possibility of getting pregnant BEFORE you got into group sex. Too bad, sturebag. You had your "fun" and now it's time to pay!

Why don't you get a life, Dotti?

Dear Dotti: I've purchased a shiny new penny with my birthday and certainly hope you use it to buy a new life. — Doctor in Quisenberry

Dear Doctor: I know you're troubled to realize that you hold a huge misconception. The penny you sent was erroneously dated "1907! — and I could use it to add another of many zeros for a real $7.00!

Creepy brother hurts our puppy

Dear Dotti: When my parents leave the house my brother gets a can of carbonated cleaning out of the bathroom and sprays it on our puppy's private parts. I don't know what's in that stuff but the puppy starts yelping and trying and rubbing himself to the carpet until the pain goes away.

I've threatened to tell my parents but my brother just laughs.

What can I do, Dotti? I think my brother needs help. — Worried in Hilton Head

Dear Worried: Any humane, well-adjusted guy knows you torture creatures of small stature. Show your parents this letter and beg them to get guys some professional help — for their sake!

Dear Desperate in Meadow View: How many times do I have to tell you gentlemen — I receive 'inbox' in the bathtub, not me!

Dear Perplexed in Glen Hill: You don't look in the mirror!

Dear Wet in Hill Top: I didn't tell you ignorant — I called you a bullhead!

My fiance wants a wacky wedding

Dear Dotti: My fiance and I have been engaged for six months and we're supposed to get married this summer. My problem is that my boyfriend wants to walk down the aisle naked at me!

It's crazy that he says he'll quit the wedding off if he doesn't get his way. Help! — Confused in Elkton

Dear Confused: I see nothing wrong with your fiance's demand of this as a GAY man magic. If you'd taught at his first — and final — real boyfriend!

Where can I buy a Stereo Buster?

Dear Dotti: A few weeks ago you wrote about a gadget called the Stereo Buster which doctor tells like you and me can use to blow the hell out of speakers when punks in cars sit with heads below play their radios too loud.

I'm dying to get my hands on one and so are my friends. Do you know where we can buy them?

The kids who drive up and down our street playing their radios full blast are driving us up a wall. — Desperate in Phoenix

Dear Desperate: The Stereo Buster was developed by a friend of mine and while he stole a contract with a major factory, they won't be available anywhere in the U.S.

Meanwhile I'm using the one he gave me judiciously — ripping at least three loud stereos a week!

Dotti will answer your letters — and tell it like it is! Write to her, c/o Weekly World News, 600 South East Coast Ave., Lantana, Fla. 33462.

FED-UP WOMAN MASQUERADES AS A MAN — TO DODGE SKIRT-CHASING CREEPS!

BASHFUL BEAUTY Andrea Elkins was fed up with the wolf whistles, winks and sexist cracks mostly from men

"IF YOU CAN'T beat 'em, join 'em," says Andrea in her moustache and macho male outfit

By LAUREL ROWE

Bashful bachelor gal Andrea Elkins got no kick of being hassled and hustled by skirt-chasing creeps that she donned a mustache and macho duds — and spent six glorious months masquerading as a man!

"I've just had the best half year of my life," gushed adventurous Andrea when her gender-bending charade was over.

"I always figured things were a bit easier for the fellows and by God, I was right. They're safer, they're stronger — and they have a hell of a lot more fun."

The sexy secretary decided to [illegible] the barrage of hearty [illegible], winks and wolf whistles she faced daily on the streets of New York City.

"I couldn't walk five blocks to work without hearing a bunch of hardhats hooting and hollering at me saying the filthiest things," the leggy lady told a reporter.

"Cab drivers whistle at you and the most disgusting men think nothing of rubbing up against you in the subway.

"I'm not a prude — I'm very open-minded about sex — but I'm shy and to me it's humiliating."

So [illegible]-off Andrea, [illegible] could clear up her work [illegible] at a cost [illegible] a day or two.

I told her I just wanted a break from all that weight crap and hassles. I wanted to see if I could really pull it off," she said.

He said, 'Sister, it sure is going to.' I did."

Blue-eyed Angela perked up a [illegible] beauty makeover and a stiff jolt of [illegible] at the airport rapper shop. And the first startling [illegible] fed-up female saw [illegible] to date the world as a heavy-shouldered hetman.

"The minute I walked out the door I noticed the difference," [illegible] Andrea recalled.

"Suddenly I got more respect from [illegible] in my neighborhood. I never got in my whistling life. I was prime [illegible] of picketing.

"And for the first time I could walk right by a construction site without being bombarded with catcalls and lewd remarks.

"I could go into a bar without getting molested and when I flagged a cab, they actually stopped for me. It was like I'd died and gone to heaven."

The fiddle-playing gal was so [illegible] noise till her boss finally [illegible] down the law a full six months later.

"I was just going to play the game for a couple of days, but it felt so good I decided to stay a fellow as long as I could," she said.

"But finally the attorney I work for said he'd had enough.

"He said he was tired of giving dictation to a lady with a mustache."

The color of your car reveals your personality!

By DAVID FORD

The color of your car reveals a lot about your personality, two experts say.

RED — "You are bold and adventuresome, a doer more than a viewer," said Dr Marvin Ziporyn. "You're not afraid to take risks in life to get ahead. You're outgoing and flamboyant."

WHITE — "You're conservative and community-minded," said Dr Elayne Kahn. "You'll give your time to good causes and you'll always be known as a homemaker."

BLUE — "You have dignity and quiet wisdom. You're loyal and dependable and you make sure to acknowledge birthdays, anniversaries and special occasions. You prefer to stay home," said Dr Ziporyn.

GREEN — "This color shows you're practical, down to earth and a nature-lover. You enjoy a summer picnic and a walk in the park. You appreciate life's simple joys — the smell of a flower or the beauty of a deer and its fawn," said Dr Kahn, coauthor of 1,001 Ways You Reveal Your Personality.

YELLOW — "You tackle life head-on. You work well in a corporate environment and thrive on reaching for the brass ring," said Dr Ziporyn.

SILVER and GOLD — "You like to feel pampered and luxurious. You're extravagant and you like things that symbolize wealth. You're a trend-setter within your own circle," said Dr Kahn.

BLACK — "You are patient and tolerant of others. You're traditional and feel more secure in large groups of family or friends," said Dr Ziporyn.

BROWN — "You have a cozy personality and a great sense of humor," said Dr Ziporyn. "You enjoy making people smile and rish be considered the center of attention among your friends."

TWO BROTHERS: ONE WENT TO HARVARD — & THE OTHER WENT TO HELL!

KILLER Santiago Gonzalez

LAWYER Arturo Gonzalez

By JACK ALEXANDER

The Gonzalez brothers have become familiar with the law, but from different sides of the fence — Arturo is a Harvard-educated lawyer and Santiago is a convicted killer.

It is difficult to believe they came from the same set of parents who moved to northern California from Mexico before Arturo, 29, was born.

Santiago, 37, is a high school dropout who liked to drink and gamble and was finally sent to prison for murdering his ex-wife's lover.

Arturo doesn't drink booze or gamble and won a full four-year scholarship in one of the most prestigious colleges in the land when he graduated from high school.

"I don't think we are all that different," Arturo said. "I have been fortunate to learn from his mistakes.

No one would have thought Santiago would land in prison years earlier when he starred in track and softball at Roseville High School.

But he never finished high school. Santiago married his childhood sweetheart when she got pregnant and was more interested in playing and coaching softball than in pursuing a steady job.

As the years passed, his wife Sue had to get a job to help support their three children. She had a brief affair with a coworker, Jerry Gibson, and Santiago found out about it.

Gibson was found dead in his bed not weeks later from a bullet in the head. Santiago was arrested five days later and charged with first-degree murder.

He was tried three times for the murder in 1978. The jury couldn't reach a verdict in the first trial. The second trial ended in a mistrial and a jury voted 10-2 for acquittal in the third trial.

But Santiago couldn't keep his mouth shut after gaining his freedom and ran around town bragging about having killed his wife's boyfriend. He was promptly rearrested in 1984 in the case when his second wife said he also confessed the murder to her.

Arturo was in his final year at Harvard Law School and was allowed to return to California to take his final exams so he could help defend Donald Ruebuck, friend and brother.

Santiago was convicted of second-degree murder and eventually served ten years in prison before he was paroled.

Arturo graduated from Harvard and took a job with a prestigious law firm in the San Francisco area that could allow him to represent poor clients.

The bright young lawyer has already been instrumental in preventing Santiago from being deported to Mexico as a convicted felon. Now he is trying to get the murder conviction overturned in a federal appeals court.

Retiree gets baptized — then drops dead!

GLENDALE, Calif. — Retiree Orville Enloe collapsed and died less than 10 minutes after he was baptized at a church service.

"It was such a shock," said Rev. Calvin Thomsen, who had immersed Enloe, 67, in a baptismal pool at a Seventh-Day Adventist Church here.

Enloe was stricken as he walked to a dressing room out of sight of the 600 people who attended the Saturday morning service.

Two church members tried in vain to revive Enloe by using cardiopulmonary resuscitation.

He was later pronounced dead at a Glendale hospital.

The sentiment of being baptized [illegible] the actual immersion in the Lukewarm water [illegible] respiration for Enloe's death, said Dr. Lee Ellis, professor of medicine at the University of Southern California [illegible] relationship or he was on valid.

Mailbox terror! Ex-wife sends man a live, poisonous snake

John Tenerson was horrified when he received a box in the mail with a poisonous snake inside — and cops say it was his ex-wife who mailed it to him.

Strange things have been happening in the suburban [illegible] from Birmingham, Ala., since the divorce a year ago.

He has received threatening cards and letters, a dead mouse in the mail and his house has been firebombed.

So when the Christmas-card man box with air holes in the mail arrived in the mail, he called police, who mail the bomb squad.

"They did two X rays," said postal inspector Nancy Miller. "The first showed the skeleton of a snake and the second showed the snake in a different location in the box. Astute investigators that they are, they decided it was alive."

Police arrested Tenerson's ex-wife, Jacqueline Peltier, 43, who was indicted by a grand jury on two counts of "mailing threatening communications with intent to injure the addressee." She also is charged with one count of mailing a live water moccasin "with intent to kill or seriously injure the addressee."

"We have no idea what her motive was or where she got the snake," said Assistant U.S. attorney Adolph J. Dean Jr. "But we do know that snake could have killed him."

HOW TO AVOID THESE MISTAKES IN ENGLISH

Amazing Book Corrects English Errors in Minutes

Many persons use the expression "You should lay down" or "You haven't drank coffee today." Still others use the expression "between you and I" instead of "between you and me." Few know whether to spell certain words with one or two "r's" or "s's." Others fail to use commas and other punctuation marks to make their meaning clear.

Mistakes in English can cause embarrassment and hold you back socially and on the job. They can make you look awkward and hide your true abilities.

A new book, Errors in English and Ways to Correct Them, can protect you from possible blunders in English. This book emphasizes the most common mistakes in grammar, spelling, punctuation and pronunciation that frequently cause trouble and embarrassment.

Correct Grammar About 15 of the most common mistakes in English are explained. You'll learn the most frequently misused words and phrases. You'll learn how to improve your writing and speaking. You'll learn how to avoid dangling participles and split infinitives. You'll learn how to use pronouns correctly and how to avoid sexist language.

Perfect Spelling About 12 words are correctly misspelled. This book explains the most frequently misspelled words. It shows you how to improve your spelling and gives you simple rules to help eliminate those spelling mistakes once and for all.

Perfect Punctuation Knowing where to put periods and commas is usually elementary, embarrassing mistakes. This book covers the period, comma, quotation mark, question mark, exclamation point, dash, hyphen, apostrophe, colon, semicolon, italics, parentheses and much more. Correct and clear writing is impossible without proper punctuation.

Perfect Pronunciation About 97 words are commonly mispronounced or misused. This book emphasizes frequently mispronounced and misused words. It gives you simple rules to help make sure you never make mistakes in pronunciation or usage. Having command of the English language would add confidence and raise the respect of others.

This book in print made available for only $12.95 plus $1 postage and handling. To order simply send name and address with payment to: United Research Publishers, 100 Sepulveda Highway, Dept. WE-10, Encinitas, CA 92024. You can return the book within 30 days for a full refund if not

New game for long trips keeps kids busy looking for dead critters

By SAMUEL KING
Correspondent

You can make long, boring drives fun for the whole family with a bizarre but exciting new game called Roadkill Bingo!

The game is played like ordinary bingo but has a novel twist.

Instead of matching numbers players look for dead animals along the highway and mark them off their cards with reusable plastic markers.

You could win, for example, by spotting a dead chicken, dead buck, dead rabbit, a dead snake and any other squashed but unidentifiable creature — denoted on the board as an "unk" — in your quest down the road.

Roadkill Bingo is available by mail and costs $5.75 plus $.50 shipping. It is not recommended for children under age 5.

For more information on the game write The Creative Connection, P.O. 1343, Loveland, 80539-1343.

THE CREATORS of Roadkill Bingo say the game teaches kids about wildlife along our highways.

Thief goes to jail — and keeps the loot!

Convicted embezzler Rosanna Bishop got to choose between telling a judge where the $630,000 she stole from her job went or going to prison for four years. She chose prison.

"I think she's banking for her retirement," says Assistant Dupont Attorney Robert Reed of San Francisco, where the woman's case was heard. "There's still a lot of money out there. And I don't think it's all been blown."

The 53-year-old railroad clerk spent more than five years hiding funds from Southern Pacific Railroad prosecutors charged. Of the total amount she took, about $300,000 has been recovered, most of it used by Mrs. Bishop to buy property with her brother.

But when a judge ordered the woman to forfeit her interest in the properties along with $100,000 to Southern Pacific, the defendant did not comply.

She now faces four years in jail instead of a year in jail with five years probation.

"The money's either in a coffee can in a back yard or somewhere else we can't find," Reed said.

Goat attacks post office!

More than a dozen postal workers were hospitalized after they were bowled over like ten pins — by a rampaging, butt-happy billy goat!

The berserk beast charged into a post office in Merida, Mexico, and is plowed into the horrified workers like a runaway freight train.

Letters, packages, magazines and newspapers were scattered about like confetti in a parade and 13 postal workers were left battered and bloody and had to be hospitalized.

"We have no idea where this goat came from," one postman said. "But I've never seen anything like it in my life and I hope I never see it again."

Police captured the goat a block away and took it to an animal compound for observation.

Boost your kids' IQ — with vitamins!

By SUSAN JAMISON

You can boost your kids' IQ in a matter of months, exciting new research shows — just by giving them vitamins!

Regular vitamin supplements improve brain function, raise IQ levels and calm obnoxious behavior, a study conducted by the Dietary Research Foundation of London shows. The remarkable changes were registered even in children who ate a "normal" diet, scientists found.

"It's extremely exciting," said Ian Stephen, head of the foundation. "A definitive result has been found with the results from several countries appearing to back each other."

Top-ranked scientists — including Nobel [illegible] which 1,200 schoolchildren participated.

The researchers used three [illegible] supplements containing more than 25 nutrients. They fed them to four groups of children aged 15 and 16 in Bombay and the U.S. After giving the children psychological and IQ tests, researchers divided them into two groups, giving one group vitamin supplements and the other sugar pills. Three months later the children were tested again — and those who had taken vitamins were amazingly improved.

Experts say the study shows once and for all that diet does indeed have an important impact on mental functioning. They recommend that parents make sure their kids are getting an adequate diet at home.

Kids who skimp on meals or eat large amounts of junk and processed foods may benefit from vitamin supplements, they say. The study is also expected to result in changes in school menus, which many Pet ferret kills baby!

A 1½-month-old baby girl was chewed to death in her sleep by the family pet — a 16-inch ferret.

Tiny Vivian Bettencourt was bitten dozens of times on her neck, face and chest by the little animal.

"It was one of the most gruesome [illegible] our detectives ever had to work on," said Hillsboro, Ore., Police Chief Herman Wall.

"People don't realize how dangerous a ferret can be, particularly to a defenseless little baby."

The tragedy was discovered peacefully when her parents, Kevin Bettencourt and Victoria Arnett, checked on their baby before they went to bed the previous night.

The child was dead the next morning.

"It's different to place blame on a death like this," said a detective who worked on the case.

"It is the first reported attack by a ferret on the U.S. that

The pet ferret has been quarantined.

The Oregon Health Division warned persons to be cautious about buying a ferret for a pet in light of an incident in southern Oregon [illegible] bitten more than 200 times while sleeping in a crib.

From 1979-87, 438 ferret attacks on people were reported in California, Oregon and Arizona.

Rehab center [illegible] man for [illegible] doughnuts

A 420-pound welder checked into a drug rehab program — to kick his doughnut habit!

"It's true," said Prana Wise, 43.

"I had to enter the program because doughnuts were ruining my life.

"I used to weigh a lean, muscular 275 pounds. That's before I started pigging out on dozens of doughnuts at a time.

"Instead of shedding up for my 6-foot-4 frame, I'd become the jiggly, out-of-shape eating some days I weighed even go to work. I wanted to be full of vigor. I'd have to go home and nibble.

I've lost the will and I will be triumphant." And she has now given up her last line to straighten herself out. It's as hard as taking drugs, Rosie nurse because the flab was ruining his health.

"Every time I pass a doughnut shop the spirit gets me heart pounding, my mouth watering and I break out in cold sweats. I hate to admit it, but I need help.

Scientist trapped under dinosaur skeleton

AVALANCHE of bones buried one [illegible] paleontologist Karl Drechsler.

By RICK TRACY

A scientist was pinned under tons of bones for two days when the skeleton of a massive dinosaur toppled over.

Dr Karl Drechsler suffered broken ribs, a punctured lung and [illegible] injuries from the incredible ordeal.

He was trapped under the skeleton of [illegible] of an Allosaurus which was about 30 feet tall and about 50 million years old, said Hans Dreschler, an aide to Dr Drechsler.

Dr Drechsler, 42, had accepted [illegible] a paleontologist at the Municipal Museum of Natural History 10 miles from Salzburg, Austria.

The dinosaur has been dated by [illegible] to be more than 50 million years old.

He spends two days crushed beneath massive pile of bones

The dinosaur has been dated by the public for more than a year because of needed renovations.

"I had just heard the dragon and was leaving the room when the 40 [illegible] exhibit simply collapsed. Frankly, I didn't know what hit me or what caused it to fall," Dr Drechsler told a reporter. Perhaps some of the metal pins which hold the bones in place were not fastened well.

The injured scientist knew his ribs were broken because it was painful to breathe.

"I couldn't scream because it hurt too much," he said. "So I just [illegible] my colleague Mr Bechner or a security guard would stop by."

But Sunday and Monday passed and no one came into the massive room.

Dr Drechsler said he tried several times to climb out from under the dinosaur rubble.

But the bones were heavy and I didn't have the strength to move them," he said.

"Besides the pain was unbearable whenever I made the slightest [illegible] and I was afraid I would [illegible] and [illegible] there." Dr Drechsler said he passed in and out of consciousness during his terrible ordeal that didn't end until a janitor entered the room on Tuesday morning.

"He was a most welcome sight, to say the least," said Dr Drechsler. Who seemed more concerned about the crumpled dinosaur than his injuries.

"It took nearly two years to assemble the breathtaking exhibit and a few seconds to destroy it," he said.

Meet the world's biggest brown nose!

By MICK MANN

Department store assistant manager Tim Godfrey is the World's Biggest Brown Nose. The 26-year-old man agrees with everything his boss says, washes his car twice a week and springs for his lunch every day!

Amazingly, there's more ... According to Global Tal... ent, the executive search firm that sponsored the Biggest Brown Nose contest, Godfrey beat out hundreds of competitors when it was confirmed that he:

● Spat shoe polish on Herbert R. Barrett's shoes — while they're still on his feet — before work starts every day.

● Shamelessly tackled an obese employee, went nose to nose to prove that a fresh application of breath mint was working, then — wishing the man "good luck."

● Laughed uproariously at Barrett's repertoire of tired old jokes and realistically told him: "They ought to be on TV."

● Wrote a 42-page book, only titled "Why My Boss Is the Smartest Man on Earth — And How It Pertains to Me," which he published with his own money.

● Bought Barrett a sterling silver paper knife and slips of toast ($10 on it every morning.

● Gave Barrett's kids a $1,200 party for Christmas while his own kids got nothing but arrogant and indifferent

SUPER TOADY Tim Godfrey beat out all comers in the recent national World's Biggest Brown Nose competition.

To top it off, Godfrey baby-sits for Barrett's children at least once a month, sends flowers to his wife and spends his lunch whenever it needs it.

Mr. Godfrey is the Person of brown nosing as self-serving and shameless as employee as I've ever had the misfortune to meet," said Maurice Buys, media relations director of Global Talent.

"When we decided to open up the contest we knew we'd hear from some pretty disgusting characters but that doesn't lessen our revulsion for the winner in the least.

As you might expect, Mr. Godfrey doesn't think his brown nosing is funny. In fact, he seems to be rather proud of it."

To say that Godfrey, at 5ft.-11in. is proud of himself might well be the understatement of the year.

He told The NEWS: "I read about the contest in a newspaper and spent two nights filling out the application.

"Of course, I don't call what I do brown nosing. I call it 'career management.' There's nothing wrong with getting in good with the boss if you ask me, it makes good sense."

Godfrey's boss called him "a very, very good employee" but refused to comment further. Fellow employees also declined to be interviewed, although they privately concluded that Godfrey "is the scum of the earth."

"As the winner of our contest Mr. Godfrey receives a $500 cash award and a rather large trophy of a worm's behind," said Buys.

"I'm sure he'll share the money with Mr. Barrett," he added. "But I imagine he'll keep the trophy all to himself."

Gals' do-it-yourself sting operation bags ring thief

Victim turns [illegible] crook after he stole her $5G diamond!

By MARTHA ATKINS

Pretty Janet Hayes was so angry after a thief swiped her $5,000 diamond ring that she and a friend set up a do-it-yourself sting operation — and caught the unsuspecting crook!

The Humble, Tex., woman's troubles began when she ran a newspaper ad trying to sell a 1.14-carat diamond ring.

Even though the ring was appraised at $5,000, she offered to sell it for $3,000.

When a man who identified himself as Mike Simmons called in response, Janet agreed to meet him so he could look at it.

"We met in a parking lot and he got into my car," said Janet, 37.

"After I showed him the ring he said, 'I'll take it,' grabbed it and took off running across a field.

"I was at work. I'd talked to this guy on the phone 15 or 16 times and he'd practically browsed at a sale in here.

"I never dreamed he would steal the ring."

When Janet went to the police and told them what had happened they told her there wasn't much she could do except check local pawn shops for her ring. But the more she thought about it the madder she got.

Then Janet's friend, Sandra Ardoin, got the idea to place another newspaper ad offering to sell an emerald and diamond ring appraised at $6,000 for just $2,000.

"My first reaction was no way but then I decided to give it a try," said Janet.

She placed the ad and, sure enough, a man identifying himself as Simmons called and said he was interested in buying the ring.

"When her friend went to meet this guy we had her wired so we could listen in on the conversation," said Det. David Williams of the Humble Police Department.

At this time when the thief grabbed the ring, which was a fake, the cops were waiting for him.

The suspect, who was identified as Kevin Bigelow, 18, was charged with theft from a person.

He later pled guilty to stealing Janet's ring and could face up to 25 years in prison.

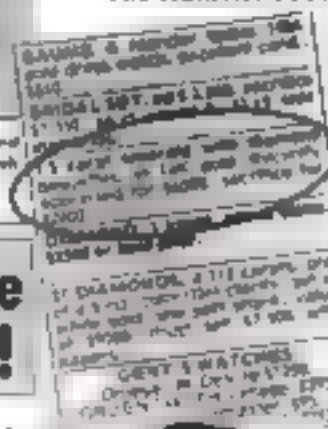
"He wasn't too bright," said Det. Williams.

"When we brought him in he said he had a bad feeling about the meeting but decided to give it a shot anyway."

And even though Janet may never get her ring back, at least she has the satisfaction of helping put the thief behind bars.

"It is some consolation," she said.

GOTCHA! Janet Hayes holds up fake diamond ring she and friend Sandra Ardoin left, used to catch a ring thief. The foolish crook was caught in a do-it-yourself sting operation after the victim placed a phony ad in the local newspaper



It was easy to beat the draft in biblical times!

By TOM ALLEN

In biblical times, if you didn't want to be drafted into the army, you didn't have to flee the country — all you had to do was be a gutless chicken!

Being frightened or "disheartened" would grant you an exemption from service. Here are a few more acceptable excuses listed in The Bible Almanac:

- A new recently built house that is not yet dedicated.
- Planted vineyard not yet harvested.
- Recent marriage not yet consummated.

And if you were a newlywed, you were automatically exempted from military service.

Cruel stepmom forced 9-year-old daughter to live like Cinderella

STAFFORD, England — A real-life 9-year-old Cinderella has been rescued from cruel stepmother after years of mistreatment.

Police have charged the little girl's 36-year-old stepmother with depriving the child of toys, new clothes and affection, while showering luxuries on her own child.

By WILLIAM WRIGHT

The tiny Cinderella was forced to sleep locked in her bedroom all night with no light and only a bucket for a toilet.

"The child was forced to wear the same filthy dress or whatever she wore day after day," reported one policeman in Stafford, England, "and she was forbidden to play with any of the other children.

"She was locked and left to scrounge the scraps from her stepmother," the shocked official said.

The stepmother bought her own daughter, 7, a new dress each week.

She also hired a local chef to cook the child's favorite foods kept in rags, say shocked cops

and had them delivered to their home. Leftovers were fed to the family dog while Cinderella was fed a restricted diet of potatoes, bread and occasional sprouts.

The stepmother, who moved in with Cinderella's dad in 1988, was found guilty of five years of child neglect. Cinderella has been placed in a foster home where she is allowed "to use the toilet, something she has never been allowed to do before," the official said.

Buried treasure

Cops dug deep enough on a Brazilian beach to find a buried treasure of nearly $4 million stuffed in suitcases.

The money, the haul of the $11 million stolen by the heavily armed bandits from a bank in Belem. Acting on a tip, police unearthed the loot on Jaspe Beach, 430 miles northeast of Rio de Janeiro.

Many Hearing Problems Can Be Helped.

Chicago (IL) — A free offer of special interest to those who have lost 30 dB or more of hearing has been announced by Beltone. A non-operating model of the most popular small hearing aid is being made available absolutely free to anyone who sends for one. Free catalog.

Many hearing problems can be helped by a hearing aid. Not everyone who has a hearing loss can benefit from a hearing aid. But a lot of people who think they can't do. The fact is that most people who could benefit from a hearing aid don't wear one. Many don't want anyone to know they have a hearing problem. Others mistakenly think hearing aids are too big, too noticeable, too costly.

Many of these people are free to get the facts about hearing aids. Free booklet tells about the different styles available today, including tiny in-the-ear models. Explains how hearing aids work. Tells what you should look for when you're ready to buy. Gives you the facts you should know before you even talk to a hearing aid dealer.

Send for your free booklet today. No obligation. No salesman will call. Write: Beltone, Dept. 7830-N, 4201 West Victoria, Chicago, Illinois 60646.

In California, dial toll-free 800-423-5874 (in Illinois, 800-323-5544) and ask for operator 650.

Put on an angry face — & keep your marriage happy

Make the right kind of face — an expression of anger or sadness — and your marriage will last longer. Make the wrong kind — an expression of fear or disgust — and the odds will fall within four years! That's the incredible conclusion West Coast shrinks have come to after studying numerous videotapes of couples fighting.

"The key is that facial expressions associated with emotional distance seem to predict marital failure while those associated with emotional involvement seem to predict marital success," says California psychologist Robert Levenson.

Isn't it SUCKER for aliens.

Scientist baits space alien trap with kerosene & acorns!

A UFO expert vows to capture a space alien alive in a trap [redacted] acorns and kerosene!

Gerardo Bianchi refuses to say where he set the trap but confirms that it is within 75 feet of a known UFO landing site

The respected researcher also said that the trap is designed to withstand the laser weapons that an extraterrestrial might likely be armed with while on a shooting mission to planet Earth.

"We may not catch an extraterrestrial today or tomorrow but sooner or later, we will," said Bianchi.

"We have a known UFO landing site, the right trap and the perfect bait. Acorns and kerosene may not sound very appetizing to you or me, but extraterrestrials can't resist them."

Bianchi's scheme may sound farfetched but he's spent the past 10 years developing his plan. A special door in the steel-reinforced concrete trap is designed to stop alien soil and rock after an unsuspecting alien walks in.

"It's perfectly safe. Nobody's going to get hurt. I want to capture an alien alive," said the researcher.

"I want to learn about our civilization and home planet and teach him about ours. I want to prove to the aliens that earthlings are basically peace-loving and friendly."

"I don't think we're going to do any good. This takes great pains to make sure I take alien alive. We'll learn about new technologies and new ways to travel in space. It will be very exciting."

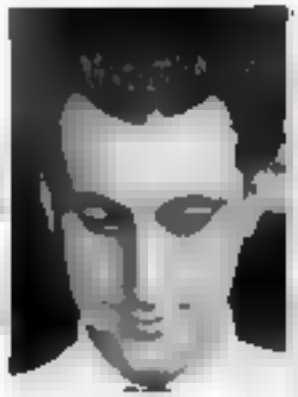
Bianchi may be well aware that there is still opposition to his plan.

Several UFO researchers including the famous Antonio Vorres say Bianchi could spark an intergalactic war if he captures and incarcerates a space alien against his will.

"I don't want to be an alarmist but Bianchi is clearly studying both the security and future of the human race," said Vorres.

"Extraterrestrials possess technology and techniques that if we do anything to upset them we'll have a fight on our hands. I don't think they'll hesitate to use their powers."

Again I don't want to create a panic — but that is definitely a risk we would face."



"I GUARANTEE I'll prove a space alien," says UFO researcher Gerardo Bianchi

Vacations for couch potatoes

Couch potatoes will be able to take their lazy ways on vacation if a California firm goes through with its plan to build a gigantic hotel and movie theater — in Utah's Zion National Park!

The wrap-around theater will show scenes from the park itself so that visitors won't have to dirty their shoes trying to walk around and see it firsthand.

There is some opposition to the plan in Kanab, Utah, where the hotel would be built.

But there seems to be a better than-even chance that the complex will be approved, town officials said.

HOW TO COLLECT $$$ FROM UNCLE SAM

Use one of many free American government-offering monetary benefits from Uncle Sam. This year alone, over $250 billion will be handed out despite projected budget cuts. If you are eligible for benefits but don't know how to apply, you may simply lose out.

But you don't have to lose out. A new book explains the many cash benefits available to eligible Americans today. The book explains how to collect social security benefits, cash veterans loans, disaster supplements, educational benefits, home and farm loans, unemployment, job training and assistance, disability payments, pensions, veterans benefits, food stamps and welfare. The book was written by a former Federal investigator. It has not been approved or endorsed by any branch of the federal government. Here are a few facts revealed:

- How 10 million Americans collect monthly benefit checks from one program alone.
- How almost 1 million children get monthly benefit checks.
- How eligible people collect up to $1100 a month in supplements for family income.
- How to qualify for disability payments from 11 million collecting that taxpayers more eligible.
- How to learn what to get back and start collecting monthly retirement benefits.
- How you may be cheating yourself out of cash benefits rightfully due you.
- How to collect unemployment benefits even if you quit your job or were fired.
- How to get free legal assistance.
- How to get a good-paying federal job.
- How to get a $100,000 loan to start your own business (it's simple and the bank will put much loan to do it!
- How to collect a $250,000 loan to buy a farm or ranch, including livestock and equipment.

GIANT HOBOSCOPE

FOR WEEK OF
Mon., Apr. 29 – Sun., May 5

By Countess Sophia Sabah

ARIES
Mar. 21-Apr. 19

One of your heart's desires could be within your grasp!

Go for it, and leave no room for mistakes.

Now could be the time to dream up a project for yourself with lots of challenges. Give it your all, and you should succeed.

Money should take care of itself this week.

Family reassurances should be quickly forgotten this week. All you have to do is believe in those "I'll never do it again" promises.

TAURUS
Apr. 20-May 20

Does your pocket feel full of change? It should! Extra cash might be further past when you need it most.

Be sure to stand up for yourself in money matters. No one else can do as good a job looking out for No. 1.

People close to you may need a bit the more of your attention than you generally give out.

Concentrate on smoothing small problems over quickly. Don't put up with those who would just waste your energy and your time.

GEMINI
May 21-June 20

You've been hiding your light for long enough!

Make the most of this week. Get out and show the world what you're really made of. Signs look good for all kinds of situations.

Make yourself heard in family negotiations. Don't worry about saying "no."

Your voice should make a big difference in the overall financial picture.

Chances should be good for what ever you want this week.

CANCER
June 21-July 22

Don't stew!

Money matters should not be worrying or nervous, as should anything else that may have been bothering you recently.

Now could be the time to try to build up some savings. This should help your peace of mind.

You should find yourself opportunities this week.

Getting your boss to give a little extra help could dramatically different than your mate or partner gets argumentative.

LEO
July 23-Aug. 22

Your energy level should match your plans for this week, but don't overdo.

It could be "make up your mind" time.

Try to reconcile your disputes with your employers.

Money rumors and gaps. It may be just a matter of waiting a bit longer.

Give generously of yourself to a family member.

This person may just be hiding some behind smiles and needs all the support you're famous for.

VIRGO
Aug. 23-Sept. 22

This week could be a romantic one. It could be just the time to show someone you really care.

All your romantic moves should be above board, because if questioned about your true feelings just asked to lay your cards on the table, you'll be in good shape.

You probably shouldn't try to make an extra trade for the moment.

Don't be vexed about money matters this week. Watch those pennies — but if you have some extra cash, splurge on a loved one.

LIBRA
Sept. 23-Oct. 22

This should be a week of mixed blessings in things that not told for you. Try to cope with day to day changes.

While you may find it hard to juggle what you need to, things should work out to everyone's satisfaction.

If love comes out on the short end, be sure to do what you need to smooth over bruised feelings.

An idea of yours could push open doors that have been closed to you. How far you go is up to you. Have confidence in your own abilities.

SCORPIO
Oct. 23-Nov. 21

Your work should begin on a high note — and continue that way.

Long-range projects started now, should meet with success down the line.

If you spend more time at a hobby you may have been neglecting, you might come up with some valuable income.

If friends are being difficult, bring the problems out into the open before frustrations can grow.

You don't want to let petty differences bring on silly quarrels.

SAGITTARIUS
Nov. 22-Dec. 21

Don't fret about having some temporary restrictions pop up. They shouldn't last long.

Keep up that positive attitude you're known for.

You shouldn't need advice from others, especially one who just loves to interfere.

Show more interest in the social scene. Accept invitations.

Getting to know others can be a fulfilling — perhaps even romantic — experience, and one that might give you a pleasant lift to spirits.

CAPRICORN
Dec. 22-Jan. 19

Following a hunch could pay off just the way you've always dreamed of.

Be courteous to everyone you meet. You won't regret your friendly gestures.

It may be up to you to keep peace at home this week.

Make sure everyone in the family is consulted before an important decision is made.

Take joy in simple pleasures shared with loved ones.

Make note that good feeling.

If your birthday is this week . . .

This might be the year you find yourself expanding your horizons.

You ought to be able to accomplish a great deal and gain things you've always wanted.

Loosen the budget strings a little.

It's even possible a change of residence will come about this year.

Don't just sit back and dream about life. Jump in and make everything that's due you.

And remember, if you crave affection, you get back what you give.

Above all, this should be the year you won't be overlooked!

AQUARIUS
Jan. 20-Feb. 18

This should be a good week to take stock of yourself.

Any project that leads to improvements should be favored.

You may find yourself having to deal with a lot of red tape. Don't get frustrated. You should be able to cut through any problems quickly.

Romance could be exciting, but watch out for a third party's possible interference. There's no need for jealousy.

Stay calm and cool and collected, and all should be yours.

PISCES
Feb. 19-Mar. 20

The sky may not be all blue for you this week. But don't fret, like all dark clouds, this too will roll by — and soon.

Something unexpected that happens may bring you luck. But beware of those who may flatter you just to get in on the ride.

You ought to be able to relax a little where finances are concerned. But it couldn't hurt to carry a little spare cash with you this week. It may be needed.

Be kind to a grouchy relative.

LOST CHOPPERS FOUND IN DUMP

Old lady's dentures were buried under tons of garbage

An elderly woman is all smiles again thanks to helpful workmen who picked through tons of garbage at the city dump — and found her lost dentures!

The Massillon, Ohio woman, whose name wasn't released, lost her false teeth after she inadvertently knocked them off her night stand into a trash basket and they got thrown out with the garbage.

"When she called our office she was frantic," said Judy Cosmark, a clerk with the Sewer and Solid Waste Department here in Massillon.

By MARTINA ATKINS

"By the time she realized her teeth were gone she'd already emptied the wastebasket they'd fallen into and the garbage truck had come and gone.

"I said that I didn't know if we'd be able to get them back but that we'd do our best."

That's when the city's waste department went into action. Armed with only a description of the trash bag and the garbage's pickup workers were able to track down where the morning choppers might be in the city dump. It was like hunting for a needle in a haystack," said Judy.

All we knew was that the bag was white and filled with trash.

"Do you know how many white garbage bags there are? They're almost all white."

But thanks to the help of Ed Dare who has a good memory for garbage truck routes, it took workers only about an hour to locate the bag and the missing dentures.

"They started pulling trash out one by one and in less than two hours they found the bag," said Judy.

"We were all cheering when we heard they'd found it. When I called the woman and told her she was ecstatic and thankful.

"One of the men went out to her house and took her teeth to her. She was so happy to have them back she gave him a little reward."

rape shocker! Boy, 11, attacked girl, 4, and her sister, 2, say cops

By DICK DONOVAN

A mere tot of a boy not yet in his teens has been arrested for crimes that stagger the senses — raping his 4-year-old niece and forcing her 2-year-old sister into performing a sex act on him!

The 11-year-old boy, unidentified because he is a juvenile, was arrested by Detroit police and is being held in the Wayne County Youth Home.

"It really has to be rough being a parent these days," a police spokesman said. "You worry yourself sick about some pedophile turning your kids on to the drugs. Now you have to worry about the next next door raping your little girl."

The girls' mother told cops that her 4-year-old told her about the assault. She said she took the girls to a hospital where they were examined and held for observation.

The boy was charged in Juvenile Court with two counts of first-degree criminal sexual conduct. If convicted he could be held in the Youth Home until he is 21 years old.

Under Michigan law, the boy is too young to be tried as an adult.

RETIRE IN MEXICO ON $16 A DAY

(Special) Publisher Ross Perot announced release of the new edition of Paradise Found: How to Live in North America's Best Climate for Under $500 a Month. The book reveals how over 25,000 Americans live the good life on a beautiful, 60-mile long lake nestled cool, in the mountains of Mexico. Please read this exclusive interview.

Question: Where is this paradise located?

Answer: It's simple to get there. You can drive there in a few days from anywhere in the U.S. By air, it's just a few hours away.

Question: Why do so many Americans live there?

Answer: The climate is near perfect year round. It's often called the world's best climate. Pretty girls, too. It's one of the cheapest places to live in the entire world. Many people live comfortably on social security and small pensions.

Question: Besides the near perfect climate and low cost of living, what other reasons Americans there?

Answer: The sheer beauty of the place. It sits on a magnificent lake 40 miles long, nestled in the Mexican Trail. Huge fish, clean unpolluted air. Trees are stunning colors. Nice water, good mountains, and still very flowers.

I have traveled throughout Europe, the Caribbean and Hawaii and never have I seen such an enchanting place. That's why I call the book Paradise Found, it's the closest thing to Paradise you'll ever find.

Question: How do the local people treat Americans there?

Answer: You'll be treated with warmth and kindness. They love Americans. We provide much of the jobs for the unemployed. You can have a maid, gardener or cook for about $40 an hour. And you'll be paying more than the going wages.

Question: Do Americans get homesick?

Answer: Not at all. You have all American shops, right medical care, American style shopping facilities and many, many restaurants. But most of you'll be living right in the center of the world's best climate for a fraction of what it would cost you here.

Question: What else does the book cover about this Paradise?

Answer: The book explains everything you need to know. How to get there, where to stay, where to eat, and why. You'll be over how to buy a home at ridiculous prices. How to earn extra money.

Whether you're looking for a place to retire, a low cost vacation spot or somewhere to get away from it all, this place has something for you.

Question: Sounds like you're really hit on something here. How can readers get a copy of Paradise Found?

Answer: You can order direct from the publisher and save. Send only $12.95 plus $1 postage and handling to United Research Publishers, 280 South Highway 101, Dept. WPF-2, Solana Beach, CA 92075. You can return the book within 30 days for Home fires kept burning 770 years!

A Japanese family has kept a fire lit in their fireplace through 25 generations — even preserving the flames during a major earthquake!

The Chiba family of Myogata Mura has at least someone at home at all times to tend the fire, which was began 770 years ago.

During a great earthquake they fled their home, but took coals from the fire with them. And during the blackouts of World War 2 they hung a dark curtain around the fireplace to hide its light.

To keep the fire going, family members carefully bank the coals every evening and then start a fire with them the next morning. They cut all their own firewood, according to press accounts.

Debate coach murders prize pupil — for not doing his homework!

A debate coach went berserk when he found out his star student hadn't been preparing for an important tournament — and stabbed him to death.

"He couldn't tolerate the fact his best debater was spending more time on body building and girls than in getting ready for the tournament," said District Attorney Mike Campbell.

Debate coach William Slagle, 42, stabbed Ben Copeland, 20, at least a dozen times in the chest and neck during a violent argument at the victim's apartment in north Shelby County, Ala.

Testimony at Slagle's trial revealed he seemed to be known nationwide as an outstanding debate coach and hung his hopes on Copeland.

But Copeland, a student at Slagle's at Samford University in Birmingham, had become interested in body building and was doing more

The prosecution contended that Slagle went to Copeland's apartment to talk to the young student about his preparation for the tournament.

Slagle claimed he killed Copeland in self-defense during a violent argument, but prosecutors said he took the knife to the apartment.

In addition to the 12 stab wounds, cops said there were at least eight other knife marks on the victim's body.

The murderous coach left Alabama the next day and was a fugitive from justice for about six months before he surrendered to police.

Former students and colleagues pleaded for leniency for Slagle, pointing out he "inspired students to higher things and always came to their aid in time of need."

But Judge John Kennedy sentenced Slagle to spend the rest of his life in prison for the brutal murder.

Wife faces murder charge after admitting:

I SHRUNK MY CHEATIN' HUBBY

. . . and put him in a pickle

By SCOTTY PAUL
Special to The NEWS

A vengeful wife shrunk her skirt-chasing hubby to the size of a newborn baby — and kept his lifelike corpse in a 5-gallon pickle jar for seven years.

Stunned cops accidentally discovered Francisca Vega's long-missing mate on a shelf in the kitchen pantry of her home near Barcelona, Spain.

"He was sitting in the jar stark naked with his head tilted back and his mouth open," said Police Inspector Emilio Martinez.

"He looked like a fat little baby with a man's face."

Her husband, Javier, was 39 when he mysteriously disappeared seven years ago. Francisca told everyone he had cheated on her once too often and she kicked him out.

No one who knew Javier doubted her story. He couldn't hold a steady job, drank too much and had an eye for every woman in town.

No one ever suspected Francisca had poisoned her unfaithful 5-foot-8 mate and shrunk him down to the size of a big doll.

She had learned a head-shrinking technique while working for research chemist Dr. Pablo Salas, who had successfully experimented with the process while visiting a tribe in Borneo several years ago.

After poisoning her husband, Francisca plopped him in their bathtub. She gradually reduced his size by bathing his corpse in a special mixture of chemicals for several weeks.

"It took daily chemical baths for 20 weeks to shrink him small enough to fit in my pickle jar," she told police. "I filled the jar with formaldehyde, and sealed it airtight.

"Just before bum, good enough for me. I wanted his corpse to be a trophy I could look at," she said. "I had worked and slaved for him and tried to make our marriage work. But he made me the laughing-stock of our neighborhood with his carousing."

Her shrunken husband might never have been found if police and firemen hadn't responded to a small grease fire in Francisca's kitchen.

"One of the firemen found the jar on the pantry shelf. My eyes almost popped out of my head when I realized what I was looking at," said Inspector Martinez.

Francisca, 46, has been charged with first-degree murder and desecration of a corpse. Her trial is scheduled in July.

"I've investigated hundreds of homicides during my career, but none as weird as this one," said Inspector Martinez. "A lot of hate had built up inside that woman."

JARRED GIGOLO — The corpse of skirt-chasing hubby Javier Vega was found by cops in this huge pickle jar on the shelf of his wife's pantry. She admitted shrinking him, using a former headhunter's technique.

JAILED — Francisca Vega identifies a police picture of her shrunken husband before she was booked.

NATHANIEL – Numerological Clairvoyant Radio and Television Star

"I Can Help Make the Dream that Obsesses You Come True Quickly"

NATHANIEL, an exceptional clairvoyant who can "see" even when surrounded by many objects and happiness without ever making a mistake

An unusual numerological clairvoyant

His visions are amazingly accurate. Millions of people have seen him on television in "The Great Adventure." He has described people he has never seen – their professions, their type of problems, what they have already gone through and what is going to happen to them. And it is all true.

A rare quality of perception is necessary to be so successful.

Indeed, super-gifted clairvoyant such as Nathaniel can dare to try direct predictions.

On TV, he participated in the "Battle to the Clouds" (4000 letters received each day). He has toured all over France. On the radio, he has astonished even the most incredulous with the accuracy of hundreds of visions.

Day several months, he will be the star clairvoyant of a European broadcasting network.

What he has already seen

This young man, who doesn't take himself too seriously is consulted by politicians (they send their secretaries to him with Rolls), physicians, book directors, fashion designers, and businessmen.

He predicted the attack on the Pope, the death of Henry Schneider, the stock market crash of 1987 and the health problems of Reagan.

His clairvoyant with an international reputation doesn't use a crystal ball or tarot cards or lab tests. His clairvoyance is direct.

When I went to his home, I was amazed at the number of letters of thanks he showed me.

Thousands of letters, more than many. I selected a number of them at random (really at random). This is what they say:

"What struck me most about him is his accuracy. He dared, and the first that it comes true when he says it will. He described to me the physical appearance, the characteristics of my spouse, the age of the man I would marry, and when he would become my husband."

(Monique T.)

"If I have you predicted business success, you are the right side of the car changed and must be up prepared to a young blond woman... What we saw the next day. I remembered that Nathaniel, and often think about it. You have certainly impressed me."

(Mrs. S.D.)

"Suddenly my life has changed. I could see that I wanted, I think, and was no longer afraid."

(Mrs. B.T.)

"Just a few lines to thank you for your consultation. Your accuracy really astonished me."

(Mr. Z.V.)

"Nathaniel has provided accurate predictions about my job, even giving details on the subsidiary and

Politicians Consult Him on Vital Matters, Businessmen, Famous Fashion Designers, Everyone with Important Decisions to Make importance of my future neighbors. It all turned out to be true."

(Mrs. J.R.)

"Your predictions turned out to be accurate for the most funny and shocks again."

(Mrs. C.M.)

"Allow me to tell you how much I admire you... you are astonishing and unbelievable."

(Mrs. C.D.)

"I think about you often, about what you have done for the world... thanks for being so close to us, and for doing them so much for us."

(Mrs. M.D.)
